

The Mountain as a Link Between Japan and Switzerland? A Crossed History of Alpine Practices and Representations in Japan and Switzerland during the Twentieth Century

7/22 (WED) 13:00 ~ 18:30 MAP In-Person Only

The University of Osaka, Toyonaka Campus, Science Studio A (Science Commons)

Register Here!

<https://forms.cloud.microsoft/r/y1Cqp4adYY>

Program

- 13:00-13:15 Opening Remarks
Prof. Pierre-Yves Donzé (The University of Osaka / University of Fribourg)
Prof. Claude Hauser (University of Fribourg)
- 13:15-14:00 Dr. Roger Mottini (Tokyo, Independent Researcher)
Switzerland and the Emergence of Mountaineering in Japanese Alpine Literature
- 14:00-14:45 Prof. Tom Jones (Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, Beppu, Japan)
Ascending an icon: Mount Fuji's environmental challenges in a global era
- 14:45-15:00 Break
- 15:00-15:45 Sherief Fitz (University of Tübingen, Germany)
Sister Cities and the Construction of an "Alpine" Japan in the Postwar Era: Exchanges with Switzerland
- 15:45-16:30 Prof. Pierre-Yves Donzé (The University of Osaka / University of Fribourg)
Mountain Practices in Swiss-Japanese Business Relations
- 16:30-17:15 Prof. Claude Hauser (University of Fribourg)
Heidi between Alpine Switzerland and Japan: Rethinking the History behind a Cultural Icon
- 17:15-17:30 Closing Session
Concluding Remarks
- 17:30-18:30 Film Screening
Sandra and Carina Roth, Where the Mountains Fly (2008)

問い合わせ先 大阪大学グローバル日本学教育研究拠点 ✉gjs@ml.osaka-u.ac.jp